To Whom It May Concern:

It gives me great pleasure to write his letter on behalf of Mr. Michael Jasz, founder and director of The Relationship Foundation. More recently, Mr. Jasz presented his Healthy Relationship Curriculum to the Harlem Children's Zone Promise Academy Charter High School.

Mr. Jasz delivered a series of workshops to 10th grade students in a seminar class called Healthy Relationships 101. This program is innovative and thought provoking. During his presentation, Mr. Jasz created a safe space for students to express themselves in class.

The Healthy Relationships curriculum gives students the tools and language to communicate with each other in a respectful manner. I was very pleased with the outcomes and students response to the program and the level of participation.

I strongly recommend The Healthy Relationship Program to your school or institution.

Please do not hesitate to contact me for any further information or questions.

Sincerely,

Beckner Joseph
